

LAKE SHORELINES

May 24, 2006

Youth Sunday

Lake Shore celebrates its youth group this Sunday. All of our graduating seniors will speak about their faith journeys. Other youth will lead the worship service through scripture, music, and prayer. We look forward to the annual youth slide show, as well.

Lake Shore celebrates with our high school seniors who graduate this week:

Jonathan Chapline graduates from Vanguard College Preparatory School and plans to attend the Rhode Island School of Design in Providence, Rhode Island this fall. He has won numerous Fine Arts awards in school competitions. He is an Eagle Scout and has been on the tennis team, in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and in Lake Shore's Youth group. Jonathan has volunteered in the community through school, church, and scouting.

Pierre-Yves Morin graduates from Midway High School this week. He moved to the United States from France with his family in 2000. Until then he had just dreamed of being here. He became active in Lake Shore's youth group after Alec Warren brought him to church. Of our seniors, he is traveling the farthest for college – 13,000 miles – to attend Science Po in Paris, France. His wants to continue his life adventure in the United States to study psychiatry.

Jeff SoRelle was born into Lake Shore, and the church has been his family and a central part of his life. He graduates from Vanguard College Preparatory School where he participated actively in mock trial, debate, and tennis. Jeff is also an Eagle Scout and has volunteered in the community through scouting, as well as Lake Shore, and plans to attend Centre College in Danville, Kentucky, where he will focus on pre-med and humanities.

From Our Minister to Children . . .

The internet is an amazing tool that I have not yet fully experienced. It takes time to sit down and “surf the net.” I admire people like Sharlande and Steve Gardner who can surf the net for hours on end late at night. At least I am the grateful beneficiary of their surfing. Often, I check my e-mail and find that Sharlande has forwarded me a site that she thinks I would like or need to know about. I am sure it is the same for many of you, as I see your names and e-mail addresses listed next to mine.

It does take time to find good sites, and time is something many of us are short on. So, I have listed some sites that might interest you. I have noted who introduced me to this site or contributed it to the list. There are hundreds of good sites out there. When you come across a good one, pass it on.

Web Sites that Lake Shore People Need to Know About

News

www.ethicsdaily.com

Read news articles pertaining to hot button issues facing our society, the church, and Baptists. (Rachel)

www.praythenews.com

Instead of only engaging the news through the paper, television, or computer, engage the news through prayer. These Carmelite sisters pray each day and post their prayers for specific events in our world. Join them. It is a beautiful and thoughtful site. (Sharlande)

www.nytimes.com

Stay on top of events, people, and the arts. Read the New York Times for free on-line.

Spiritual/Community

www.d365.org

A devotional website for prayer, quiet centering, and scripture reading. The music is beautiful. (Rachel)

www.inwardoutward.org

This is a project of the Church of the Savior in Washington, D.C., which provides daily quotes, poetry, and prose with the purpose of bringing people together to wonder, explore, and imagine, all in the name of justice, forgiveness, and community. (Chris)

www.sacredspace.ie

Engage in ten minutes of prayer as you sit at your computer with the help of on-screen guidance and scripture. (Mike)

(Mike)

www.newmonasticism.org

A network of counter-cultural Christian communities. There's a forum for discussion and links to partnering communities.

(Chris Brennan Homiak)

www.taize.fr

Taize is a familiar word around Lake Shore because we sing the songs of this international, ecumenical community located just outside Burgundy France. This community is known for its ecumenism, emphasis on reconciliation, prayers, and worship services. This site is full of resources in many languages. (Mike)

Social Justice

www.betterworldhandbook.com

Be an enlightened shopper! Click on “Shopping Guides” and download a free guide to what products are socially responsible to buy based on the companies who produce them. Your trips to H.E.B. will never be the same. (Chris)

www.bread.org

This site is sponsored by the “Bread for the World” movement, but it covers many more issues. See pictures, read stories, find links, and take action all at this one site.

www.hungersite.com

A site devoted to the facts, the news, fair trade products, educational resources, charitable giving, and much more all in the name of fighting hunger. (Chris)

www.one.org

Find out more about the fight against global AIDS and extreme poverty. We've had a Wednesday night seminar on this.

www.sojourners.com

Sojourners is a Christian ministry whose mission is to proclaim and practice the biblical call to integrate spiritual renewal and social justice.

Rev. Jim Wallis is the founder. (Rachel)

www.calltorenewal.com

A faith-based movement to overcome poverty founded by the folks at Sojourners. (The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship is involved with this movement). (Chris)

www.texanscareforchildren.org

This advocacy organization engages state and federal governments and communities across Texas to work towards improving the well-being of children in our state. (Chris)

Practical

www.lakeshorewaco.org

Did you know we have an outstanding website? You can even access the newsletter in color. Steve Gardner is our webmaster. Check it out and pass it along to a friend.

www.marthastewart.com

She's the master of the home front. Find out what cooking utensils you need in your kitchen as well as get some great recipes and much more! (Rachel)

www.flylady.com

Get tips on housecleaning and organizing. For example, the Fly Lady says, go to bed with your sink clean and empty. (Sharlande & Rachel)

Leisure

www.belief.net

While this is a serious website for people of all faith traditions, offering inspiration and news on the world, literature, the arts, and health, click on “Belief-o-matic.” Take a little quiz about your religious and spiritual beliefs and find your label. (Mike)

www.bravia-advert.com

Do you need a little breathing space in your day? See the power and beauty of 250,000 crazy balls in the streets of San Francisco. (Chris)

www.homestarrunner.com

This one's been around for a while. It's full of simple cartoons and games. You might get a laugh or two.

www.makingfiends.com

Short cartoons featuring innocent, peppy Charlotte's run-ins with Vendetta – are they friends or fiends?

Thank you, Lake Shore

Dear Lake Shore Family,

Thank you all so much for your thoughts, prayers, love, hugs, and more during this difficult time of my mom's death. It was so great seeing so many of you this past week, and I appreciate what you mean to our family. We look forward to seeing you again soon. Until then, I greatly appreciate the love you have given all of us. -Andrew Murad and family May 14, 2006

To Our Lake Shore Family,

We want to thank you for the kindnesses shown to us following the passing of our Dad, Granddad, and Great Granddad, Jack Kendrick.

Your phone calls, e-mails, cards, memorial gifts, offers of help, and food were much appreciated. Thank you also to those of you who attended the visitation and the service. We were strengthened by caring and concern you provided us. - Bob, Clela, Brad, Trae, Logan, and Cameron Kendrick May 20, 2006

Lake Shore's New Chimes

Have you heard the Westminster chimes at Lake Shore? They rang for the first time here Easter weekend. We thought you'd like to know when to listen for them:

Newsletter News

Lake Shorelines is now brought to you electronically through the wonders of technology and Steve Gardner. You may have received our newsletter via regular mail and e-mail for several weeks now. Feedback we have received on this method of delivery has been positive, and now you have a decision to make.

In an effort to conserve natural resources and to save money on paper and postage, we would like to offer you the opportunity to receive the newsletter exclusively via e-mail. Please send an e-mail to the church, lbaptistchurch@hotmail.com, by June 1 if you'd like to receive the newsletter e-mail alone. Otherwise we will keep you on the reduced-in-size snail mail newsletter list. Or, if you haven't received it via e-mail yet, but would like to, send us your e-mail address.

GOT STUFF?

It's the time of year that Lake Shore offers you the opportunity to clean out your closets, drawers, garages, and storage sheds and donate your stuff for a good cause. On Saturday, June 10, the youth will hold their annual garage sale. Proceeds will be used to help the youth attending Passport Youth Camp in July. They will spend part of their time working with recovery efforts from last year's hurricanes that devastated the Gulf Coast. Due to limited storage space, please hang on to your things until the week of the sale. Contact Mike, Elizabeth Dell (776-6928), or Pam Allen (753-5537) for information.

Prayer Concerns

Lewis Swingler died suddenly Monday night. Services will be at Lake Shore Friday morning at 11:00. Dorisanne will preside over the service. Our prayers are with Jack and their children, Jack Jr., Nancy, and Laura.

Sandi Sterling Reynolds, daughter of former member Mac Sterling, died Friday of a recurrence of breast cancer. Her mother, Judy Sterling, lives in Waco.

Good News

Susan Cannon, daughter of Ray and Jo Cannon, graduated from UT Law School on Saturday. She is moving to El Paso to clerk for Federal District Judge Martinez.
